HONOLULU, NOVEMBER 16, 1886. From a lengthy article in the San Francisco Bulletin of October 27, on the "Sugar Outlook," we clip the following paragraphs, giving the latest information regarding the beet-sugar crop of Europe, and the supplies on hand in the principal sugar markets of the world:

the world:

"Sugar continues unusually low all over the world, as compared with prices a few years ago; and it is becoming a question of interest whether there is to be any material improvement in value very soon. Crushed Sugar at 6c is certainly cheap, viewed in the light of recent history. It is not necessary to go back many years to find a quotation of 16c. There are scores of housewives in this city who thought they were doing well to get 6 lbs of Crushed Sugar for a dollar. It was then 16c per 15 by the barrel. Now the figures are completely reversed. Sugar is 6c per lb by the barrel and retailers are glad to give 16 lbs for a dollar.

'Hawaiian Sugar planters have complained much in the past two years, but really they are the best off of all, because in addition to the price which the Cuban planter gets for his product, they reap the duty which the Government excuses on their sugar. It so happens that our local Sugar refiners are largely interested, directly and indirectly, in cultivation of Sugar at the Hawaiian Islands. In making contracts with the planters, they are therefore dealing with themselves to a great extent. To out off all composition from outside sources, and to make things doubly secure for themselves, their contracts with the Hawaiian planters are based upon the cost of dutiable Sugars delivered in the United States. If, therefore, they do not get much more than the refining charges on the Sugar handled by them at the refineries, they have the benefit of the duty to the full extent that they are interested as planters. They had the wisdom to foresee this condition of things upon the adoption of the reciprocity treaty ten years ago. But for this fact, it is probable that Sugars would have sold at much less figures in this market in the past decade. Under the fostering care of such advantages, the product of the Ha-watian Islands has been more than doubled in this interval. The crop cut in the past twelve months has yielded upwards of 100,000 tons of 2,000 lbs, or over 200,000,000 lbs, and the outlook for the ensuing crop is equally favorable. A prominent element in the late depression in the Sugar markets of the world has been the cheapness with which Beet Sugar has been produced. It is a question whether economy in that line has not reached its utmost limit for the present. Everything in the way of labor saving machinery it has been possible for man to invent has been applied, and the manipulation of the Beet product has been reduced apparently to the lowest possible figure. A German trade paper with an unpronouncable name, under date of September 24th, 'gives returns of eleven Sugar factories in Germany, four of which show that they came out square, six factories worked at a loss, and only one paid a dividend. It is further reported, that of all of the Polish factories, only two declared a dividend of three per cent each, while all the rest worked at a loss.' These figures are not very encouraging, and those interested are not going to stand a duplicate of many such ssasons. As to the current season's Reet crop, the September report of M. Licht gives

"There may be some consolation to sellers in the fact that the stocks as above reported on the 1st of September were 130,000 tons less than on the 1st of August, and the smallest at any month since the 1st of October, 1885, when the total was 820,500 tons. There may be further consolation to the same class by the fact that the total for September 1st is 355,000 tons less than on the 1st of January.

The only foreign arrivals the past week bave been the bark Coloma, from Oregon, en route for Hongkong; brig Consuelo and bk Mary Winkleman, from San Francisco, with full cargoes; and bark Thebold, from New-castle, with 300 tons coal.

A Birthday Party.

A birthday party was given Wednesday evening, Nov. 10th, by Mr. George Lucas, in honor of his daughter, Miss E. Lucas. A large number of invitations were issued which were very generally accepted. Music and dancing were part of the evening's festivities, which was indulged in by the younger people present, while the older enjoyed themselves in social converse. A well sapplied table loaded with the choicest supplied table loaded with the choicest viands awaited the guests, which was lib-erally patronized. The festivities were kept ap until late, when the party retired wish-ing Miss Lucas many happy returns of the

WRIGHT-At Kapalama, Honolulu, November 13th, Whiliam Boynton Wright, a native of these Islands, aged 55 years.

HALSTEAD—In this city, Saturday, Nov. 13, 1886, Joseph Halstead, a native of Halifaz, Yorkshire, England, aged 59 years. The deceased emigrated to these Islands about the year 850, and has resided here since that time His remains were interred in Nunanu Cemetery on Saturday, and were followed to their last resting place by a goodly number of his late friends and acquaintances, who thoroughly apprecieted the deceased during life and did not forcet him after death orget him after death.

Gazette's Kohala Letter.

KOHALA, Nov. 13th, 1886. EDITOR GAZETTE :- Yesterday (Friday) between 8 and 9 p. m., all the trash houses be-longing to the Kohala Sugar Co., were burned down. This is another case of incendiarism, which seems to be the order of the day in this district; of course the guilty party will never be found out by our imbedile police force. This is the second time the trash houses of the Kohala Mill have been burned; those of the Star Mill have been burned down twice and of the Halawa Mill cnce, and not in one instance has it been found out who was the perpetrator of the deed. The manager's offer large rewards for the conviction of the culprits, and the police goes quietly to sleep, leaving it to the planters to build new houses and get them burned down again. Altogether the conditions here are getting worse and worse. Not a day goes except fights, stabbing affrays and drunken rows are reported. As nobody ever gets punished, nobody cares. Last Wednesday, a Portuguese went to the Government school and told the teacher (who is minister of the English church) that he did not want his son, who is a pupil in the school, to do certain work, which he was ordered to do. When the man was told to mind his own business, he started to beat the teacher with a black-snake, and gave him some ugly cuts on his head. And I could fill a column with instances of this kind, which some few years ago never were heard of here. On whom does the blame fall on then? Not so much on the man who is called sheriff or judge as on the Government, who put these men in office, men who every day have to men in office, men who every day have to own up to their incompetency.

Right under their noses the Chinamen are distilling gallons of okolehao, flooding the country with it, peddling it for 50 cents per bottle, and making all the native plantation laborers gloriously drunk. The police refuse to interfere, as the Chinamen have threat and to sheet an them if the second to sheet an extend to to interfere, as the Chinamen have threatened to shoot on them if they do. And actually a few nights ago a celestial fired a pistol off in the air, where a policeman tried to take two demijohns filled with okolehno from him. The policeman disappeared in double quick time, and the Pake went off with his liquor.

Outside of Honololu, this is the largest tarpaying district perhaps except Wallaku, and the returns, which the people get from the Government, are permission to keep the roads in order at their own expense, public sold okolehao, a licensed grog shop, and free opium.

in order at their own expense, public sold oko-lehao, a licensed grog shop, and free opium, and besides these blessings a Government doctor, who never attends to his duty, and a judge, who punishes cattle thieves with a fine of $5, and a police force, which upholds the law in the district in such a manner, that every-body is obliged to travel with a pistol in his pocket.

How long the planters and other taxpayers will stand this state of affairs, we cannot tell yet, but Mr. Gibson can feel certain that when the day comes, that the people here refuse to pay any taxes to his Government, he and his army (German model) will be unable to enforce the payment in spite of female major-generals and the intelligence L'ALLEGRO.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS!

By the arrival here of the Consuelo, Thursday evening, Nov. 11th, dates are to hand to Oct. 27. The Consuelo sailed at 3 a. m., of AMERICAN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27 .- All the political parties held meetings last evening in various parts of the city. The three candidates for mayor spoke, as did also Sunset Cox, Generals Spinola and Cochran, Roswell P. Flower, August Belmont, Orlando B. Potter and other celebrities. A George man was killed in a political dispute. Altogether the canvass wares warmer.

New York, Oct. 27 .- Alfred Smith, a Newport millionaire real estate owner, died sud-denly, yesterday afternoon, while at dinner. He was stricken with paralysis about a year ago, losing his reason. It is believed that each of Smith's children will inherit $9,000,-000 in hard cash. He held mortgages and estates continued to fail into his hands, among the last being Frain and Anthony villas and James R. Keene's estate, which he foreclosed when Keene was unable to return the sum of $75,000 which he had borrowed.

NEVADA CITY, Oct. 26.-Further accounts of the bursting of the cannon at the Democratic meeting in French Corral the other night show that Senator Cross was bending over and gesticulating to the crowd, whom he wished to stand further back, when the gun burst and a piece flew over the Senator's head. Had he been standing erect it would have killed him. Charles Bradford, the man killed, was the gunner. He knew his danger, as the wad was too big for the cannon, but he said he would take his chances. Bradford's head was blown off his body and was picked up at a distance of twenty four paces from the rest of the remains. Strange to say, the features were natural, and without scar or wound.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Hon. Nicholas M. Bell, Superintendent of Foreign Mails, has submitted his annual report to the Postmaster-General, showing the operations of that office during the last fiscal year. The total weight of letters dispatched to foreign countries by sea was 500,198 pounds, and of papers, 2,367,583 pounds. The estimated total number of letters sent to foreign countries are to see the countries of letters sent to foreign countries are to see the countries of letters sent to foreign countries. tries was, 37,000,298, and 30,105,387 were re-ceived; 47,049,064 newspapers were sent, and 28,700,505 was received. The cost of the sea transportation service during the year was $357,443, as against $331,903 last year. Superintendent Bell recommends that compensation to mail-carrying to Great Britain be regulated in accordance to their speed.

New York, Oct. 25.—The preparations for the unveiling of the statue of "Liberty," on the 28th instant, are progressing rapidly.

New York, Oct. 25.-The Academy of Music was gayly decorated to-night, in honor of the French delegates to the unveiling of the Statue of Liberty, who were tendered a reception by the Cercle Frangaise de l'Harmonie. A distinguished audience was present, including a very large representation from the French colony. M. La Fou, president of the circle, presided, and an address of welcome was made in French by Frederick R. Conderl. Senator Evarts then spoke in behalf of the American committee, extending a hearty welcome to the city to the nation and to all. M. Spuller, member of the French Parlament, then spoke. He said it would be impossible to speak to the French people with more feeling than had been done this evening. For a whole century the two nations have gone hand in hand, and al-though America has advanced farther in liberty, France is not envious of her happi-ness. He added: "You have put in practice what our philosophers have described; you have aided us by your example, and we are amply repaid for any services we may have rendered in your revolution." M. de Lesseps rose and embraced M. Spuller on the conclusion of his speech and kissed him on both cheeks. He said he was profoundly touched with the sentiment of this great nation, and he would say, "Vive I Amerique et la lib-erte!" M. Bartholdi was also called for, and he expressed his thanks for the reception.

Washington, Oct. 26,-The President and party to visit New York to assist in the in-auguration of the Bartholdi statue will conauguration of the Bartholdi statue will con-sist of seven person, as follows: The Presi-dent, Secretary of State, Secretary of War, Secretary of the Navy, Secretary of the In-terior, Postmaster-General and the President's private secretary. They will leave Washington at 3:50 o'clock Wednesday after-noon, and expect to return here by midnight Thursday.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Tribune says it is whispered around that the unveiling of the statue is to be made the beginning of an American movement for the Panama canal. Ex-Secretary R. W. Thompson, of Indiana, who is the American Vice-President of the Panama scheme, is here to meet and confer with De Lesseps and others with reference to the enterprise.

Boston, Oct. 25.—H. D. Ward, who has been prospecting for gold, silver, copper and sulphur about North Adams for years, and who started explorations in the place where sulpher, gold and copper are now being mined successfully, has struck gold and silver ore, it is announced, on Love's farm, situated at the foot of Greylock Mountain, near a mine worked by the Quakers seventy near a mine worked by the Quakers seventy years ago. The State Assayer writes that it assays $51 per ton, and Ward has bought 400 acres of land adjoining. Other land in the vicinity cannot be bought for any price. A company will be formed immediately.

New York, Oct. 25,-It is not generally known that the Canadian Pacific Railway is making arrangements to open a general office in this city. The company will put at the head of this office a first-class railroad man with a large salary. The fact is, the Canadian Pacific is about to make a stroke for New York, and even Boston business. The scheme is to make connection with several Vermont roads, which will connect with the New York and New England Road. By building ten miles of line, connection with the Housatonic line could be made. connection is made with the New York and New England it will be at Brewster. This would give the Canadian Pacific entrance into New York over the New York City and Northern, and by permission of Field, the Second-avenue elevated. It is said the Postal Telegraph Company, which has a close intimacy with the Canadian Pacific Telegraph line, will all be turned over to the Western Union, to be managed by the latter western Children to be managed by the inter-on rental. How far these plans will be car-ried out will depend on many contingencies. In any event the Canadian Pacific will here-after be a good deal of a factor in transcontinental business.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 25.-A telegram from Akron, Ohio, says that the Universalist General Convention wound up last evening with a grand hoax. Some waggish student at Buchtel College had sent printed cards to about one hundred of thesdelegates, repre-senting all sections of the United States, inviting them to take dinner at the house of Dr. Cone, President of the College. At the appointed hour the divines turned up, swarming all over the house of the President, much to the dismay of the good docter and his wife. Some took the joke goodnaturedly, but others let out on the offending joker in a manuer that had no regard for the Univer-salist creed. An investigation was started among the students by the President to discover the prepetrator.

New York, October 26.—The steamship Ethiopia which arrived here to-night, brought from St. John's, N. F., the remaining pas-sengers of the disabled steamer Auchoria.

Milwauker, October 26.—A collision took place this afternoon at Pine Bluff between a wild engine and a Montfort passenger train due here at 4 o'clock. One man was killed, two others were fatally injured and three

New York, October 25 .- Mrs. Cornelia M. Stewart, wife of the late millionaire dry goods merchant, A. T. Stewart, died suddenly this morning at her residence, Thirty-fourth street and Fifth avenue.

PANAMA, Oct. 24.-The Buenos Ayres Standard states that, owing to drouth, more than 20,000,000 head of sheep have died, and while the immediate loss is estimated at nearly £5,000,000 sterling, it will in reality aggregate much more. The sheep died principally from lung and throat disease, formerly unknown in the Llanos.

The United States Government has informed the Spanish Government of the with-drawal of the proclamation restablishing 10 per cent., duty on Spanish imports from October 25th.

The New York sugar market October 26, was: Cuban centrifugal, No. 3, 96 test, 5 5-16 cts.; crushed, 61-8 cts.; granulated, 61-8 cts.; extra, 45-8 cts. to 47-8 cts.

EUROPEAN.

London, Oct. 26.—A conference of the Tories was held at Bradford to-day. There were 800 delegates present. The conference adopted the imperial federation article of Conservative faith. Lord Churchill, speaking on a motion proposing the approval or Beaconsfield's Eastern policy, said the Gov-ernment would follow that policy as the changed conditions of European affairs would allow. A heated discussion took place the women suffrage question, after which the previous question was carried. A resolution was adopted expressing confidence that the Government would follow Beacons-field's policy, and would vigilantly guard British interests against Russian aggression and especially prevent the seizure of Con-

The Times hopes that Lord Iddesleigh, For eign Secretary, will tell Waddington, the French Embassador, plainly and firmly that England will judge for herself when her task in Egypt is finished.

In a speech made last night Lord Ran-dolph Churchill said that the official accounts reaching the Government of the social condition and prospects of Ireland are of an encouraging character. There is a good harvest and a marked recovery in prices, and from all we can learn, though accurate information is difficult to obtain, rents are being generally paid. Throughout the country the landlords have helped greatly to lessen the difficulties of the crisis, though they belong to a body of men that had never met with over much justice in Eugland and therefore were justified in standing out for their complete rights and strict letter of the law. They have generally made very large reductions, and the Gov-ernment is immensely indebted to them for the generous spirit which they have dis-played. The Irish tenants also have co-operated in a single manner toward the restoration of order.

The separatist party in the House of Com-mons predicted that a terrible time was coming in Ireland. Nothing of the kind has oc-curred or is likely to occur, although there are still isolated districts in Ireland where terrorism and crime are rampant, which may call for special treatment. With this exception there is a marked decrease in crime an disorder. The people are rapidly appreciating the full significance of the last appeals to the electors, and will gradually shape their political and social action in accordance therewith. If the Unionists firmly follow up the victory they have gained, I think we may conclude, without any doubt, that the ques tion of the maintenance or repeal of the Union is settled for at least two generations. London, Oct. 26.-Details have been received of a massacre of native Christians of Uganda, Africa, by order of King Mwanga. The massacro began in June and was directly due to the refusal of a Christian boy acting as the King's page to commit an unnatural crime. Many Christians were tortured, mutilated and speared, and thirty-two were burned alive. The appeals of the mission-aries for a cessation of these atrocities were unavailing. The fate of these unfortunates did not serve to frighten the candidates for bantism, and within a week after the massacre many natives were baptized at their own Leaflets containing extracts from Scripture, prayers and sacred songs in the Nganda language are freely bought by the people, although their possession involves the dhuger of punishment.

The diary of Bishop Hanningto, who was put to death by order of the King, will soon be published in London. It is a thrilling and pathetic narative of his experiences in Uganda up to the day of his death. Sofia, Oct. 26 .- Storauoff, the popular poet, intends to move in the Sobranje in favor of declaring Bulgaria a Republic. Rumors are current that a plot has been discovered to seize the regents while on the way to Tirnova.

There is much excitement over the arrest of the commandant who planned the seizure of the Ministers while on their way to Tir-

It is expected that the Sobranje will im-peach Karaveloff and compel him to resign from the regency.

BERLIN, Oct. 26 .- At the trial of Herr Wickels, the editor of the Froenkisch Volkes-blatt, before the tribunal of Wurzburg for charging the Bavarian Ministry with ill-treating the late King and forcing the latter to commit suicide, one witness declared that he never remarked anything abnormal about King Ludwig; that the latter had been impelled to commit suicide through the pro-cedure of the Commission of Examination; that he had heard Ludwig say: "I will not suffer them to declare me a madman, like my brother Otto, whose keepers beat him with their fists. I will rather suffer death. My blood be upon those who are conspiring to betray me."

Paris, Oct. 26.—The Temps, in a pacific and friendly article on the relations existing between England and France, urge the press on both sides of the channel to refrain from exciting hostile feelings.

CAPE Town, Oct. 25 .- Ten thousand Pondas have invaded the neighboring country, burning kraals and committing depredations. The Government is raising volun-teers to resist them. The situation is criti-

Paris, Oct. 25.—The Figure says it is expected that De Giers, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, will issue a circular to the Powers declaring that active measures are necessary to terminate the anarchy pre-vailing in Bulgaria, and on the ground that it is dangerous to the peace of the Balkan States and offensive to Russia.

VIENNA, Oct. 25 .- It is reported that two Russian frigates have arrived at Varna. The Bulgarian Government places no faith in the report. The Russan Consul at Varna has, however, asked for a war ship to protect the Consulate and Russian residents.

France is pressing Russia to initiate a movement on Constantinople. The Russian fleet is ready to leave the Black Sea. The Baltic fleet has been raised to its fullest extent.

The Bethel Social.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 11, the Bethell Social was held at the Lyceum, Nauann Avenue, at which a large number were present. A fine programme was presented, which in-cluded vocal and instrumental music, interspersed by readings. The numbers were as follows: "Duet, piano and violin, by Miss Hustace and Mr. W. E. Herrick. This was following by Mark Twain's "Facts in the Great Beef Contract," read by Mr. Parmelee. The third number was a fine vocal solo by Miss Jennie Grieve. Then came the reading of "The Irish Letter," and "Tesching a Boy to be Studious and Thoughtful," by A. L. Smith. After this, Miss Alice Love con-tributed a piano solo, Miss Parmelee gave a reading, and the entertainment closed with vocal solos, rendered respectively by Miss Anna Austin and Mrs. E. C. Damou."

A feature of the evening was a drawing of the ground plan of the proposed new Church for the Bethel Union Congregation, to be erected on the lot recently purchased, corner of Beretania and Richard streets. The plan elicited the warm approval of all present, and when carried out by the Trustees, the Bethel Union Congregation can boast of one of the finest as well as most commodicus Churches to be found here or elsewhere.

The Variety of Lloyds' Risks.

In consequence of the destruction or dam age by fire of property in the United States covered by policies in the Lloyds' Under-writing Association of London, commonly supposed to be a marine insurance organiza-tion, has been brought into notice of It is true that the larger portion of its risks are marine, but says the Boston Herald, "so far as limitations are concerned, they do not exist, and there is probably no risk or wager of any kind that would not find its takers in Lloyds' exchange. Policies have been issued there upon some of the most curious of future and uncertain events; that is, as to whether or not a man would be married; whether or not he would receive an expected inheritance; whether or not grain would command in the market a few months ahead a given price. In all sorts of appeala-tions of this kind the members of Lloyds have been known to indulge, and even in their marine business they will take risks under conditions which would seem altogether preposterous to marine underwriters in this country."

Frank Davis.

Frank Davis, who escaped from the Station House during Friday night, the 5th inst., was recaptured on Monday, and had a hearing before Judge Bickerton on Tuesday, resulting in his conviction for the larceny of two watches and a chain from the residence of Mr. W. Miller at Sea View, and was sen-tenced to hard labor for fifteen months with a fine of $32.50. Davis was then charged with escaping from the Station House, and for this little joke, after "acknowledging the corn," had an additional three months added, to commence at the expiration of the sentence. Davis was next charged with burglary of Mr. Miller's house, and pleaded not guilty. Sufficient evidence was taken to war-rant the Judge in committing him to the Supreme Court for trial for burglary.

Coffee Sentenced.

On Wednesday, Mike Coffee appeared before Justice Bickerton, for sentence for the robbery of a watch from a fellow lodger named Pompon. The Judge sentenced Coffee to nine months at hard labor and to pay a fine of $20. Coffee conducted his case in Court, and was complimented by the Judge for the able manner in which he examined the witnesses in the case, noted an appeal to the Supteme Court. Presentation.

Quartermaster General Sam Nowlein, of recipient of a handsome siver ice pitcher by the members of his old company, as a token of esteem and respect by his old comrades in arms. The ceremony took place at the Armory, on Friday evening last, Capt. Clark, in a neat speech making the promo-tion. Yuartermaster General Nowlein was tion. completely taken by surprise, not having the most remote inkling of what was going on. Quartermaster General Nowlein, after having recovered from his surprise, thanked the donors for this kindly act of appreciation of his services in the past, and trusted that this friendly feeling would continue in their new relations. The following is inscribed on the pitcher: "Presented to Quartermaster General Samuel Nowlein by the officers and members of the King's Own Volunteer Guard, Honolulu, November 12th, 1886."

The Latest from the Arctic Whaling

Mr. Bayne, an employe of the Pacific Steam Whaling Company, who arrived at San Francisco as a pissenger on the steamer Bear from the Arctic, brought down news of importance concerning the Northern whaling fleet. The advices from the Arctic are up to September 26th and from the Behring Sea up to October 1st. The schooner Clara up to October 1st. The schooner Clara Light is reported to be lost, the crew going on board the Alliance. The news was brought down to where the Bear was by the Hamilton concerning the loss, but no par-ticulars are given except the foregoing. It is probable that the Clara Light was crushed. She was in the Arctic as a tender and whaling. The advices are that the whaling promised to be open for three weeks after September 26th. Probably most of the fleet are now on the way to port.

The catch is much larger for the season than was previously reported. The catch in detail is reported to be as follows: Orca 11, Balæna 4, Belvidere 2, Lucretia 5, Narwhal 4, Thrasher 3, Mary and Helen 1, Grampus 6, Alliance 1, Ocean 1, Abram Barker 3, Wandere 0, Sea Breeze 4, Northern Light 1, Mars 1, Helen May 3, Reindear 12, Houter 1 derer 0, Sea Breeze 4, Northern Light 1, Mars 1, Helen Mar 3, Reindeer 13, Hunter 1, Stamboul 0, Young Phoenix 44, Dawn 3, Mary and Susan 1, Bounding Billow 0, Andrew Hicks 2, Francis Palmer 0, Arnolda 3, Atlantic 0, James Howland 1, Fleetwing 0, Hamilton 2, San Jose 1, Hidalgo 0. This report is up to September 26th. On the 1st of October the Coral had also 2, Eliza 2 and Ohio 9 whales, these last three named being in the Behring Sea fleet. The Bear reports that the schooner J. A. Hamilton put into Oonalaska with two whales. She was out of Oonalaska with two whales. She was out of water and four of the crew were sick. The bark Memnon was ready for sea, with a portion of her crew sick. Six men were sent on board from the Bear.

The Minstrel Entertainment.

On Friday and Saturday evenings the members of the Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club gave an excellent negro minstrel entertainment at the Opera House. The first part of the performance consisted of songs and choruses, the latter being finely rendered. Mr. J. Bright gave "White Wings," a pretty tenor song, followed by "An There," a comic song, by W. G. Armstrong, at the conclusion of which he danced a jig in regular professional style. Mr. Morse's "Bold Jack Tar," and Mr. J. M. Dowsett's "Fil Take You Back, Kathleen," were fully appreciated, and the latter received a deserved encore. Mr. C. Macfarlane climbed "Up the Golden Stair," and Mr. Hoogs sang "Little Darling, I'll be True." Both gentlemen's efforts called forth loud applause. A chorns of seven Hawaiian gentlemen was much appreciated and called forth an encore. Part. L concluded with a comic drill entitled the "Skids," most amusingly rendered by Messrs. Macfarlane, Lillis and Armstrong.

The second part opened with a character song, with local hits, by Mr. Holdsworth. A negro sketch by Messrs. Macfarlane and Armstrong, called forth no end of laughter. The "Three Little Girls from School, represented by Messrs. Morse, Hoogs and J. M., Dowestt, fairly brought down the house, and the extraordinary head-gear were wonderfully funny. Mr. J. Appleby showed his power as a banjoist, performing a number of tricks with his instrument, as well as showing his power to play difficult variations. The performance concluded with a farce, the "Slippery Day," in which a variety of local characters were portupyed, from the Minister of Interior and the Poet Laureate to the tlemen's efforts called forth load applause. ifonoidly at the present time has a sup-abundance of talent in the art of billiard pay-ing, Me-srs. Saylor, McCleery and Morris, all of whom are considered fine players. A few match games were played by McCleery and Saylor, and a good attendance to see champions of the cue exercise their skill followed as a matter of course. The Alameda, on her last trip added Mr. L. Morris, who also has a good record for high scoring, and also has a good record for high section, and the result was the making of a series of three games to be played by the trio. Morris agreeing to play 1,000 points against Mc-Cleery's or Saylor's 750 points.

The first of these games was played at the Hotel Billiard Parlors on Monday evening, between McCleer and Saylor for the cham-pionship, and resulted in a decided victory for McCleery by 400 points. McCleery's best runs were made on the 28th and 30th innings—being 150 and 323. Saylor's runs were all small, excepting the 17th, when he scored 208.

The second game was played on Tuesday evening, between Morris and Saylor, and resulted in a victory for Saylor. who scored the required 750 against Morris' 150. Saylor, on this occasion, seemed to be in fine trim, while Morris did not appear to be in good condition for playing, having been out of practice, owing to ill health previous to his arrival.

The last of the series of games was played Thursday evening between Morris and Me-Cleery, resulting in a victory for the latter, who on the 42d inning scored 750 against Morris' 780, the latter agreeing to make 1,000 points to McCleery's 750—losing th game by 220 points.

The playing throughout was fine; numbers of brilliant all-round shots being made by all three of these experts of the cue. The attendance was better to witness the final game than on the two former contests.
